THURSDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1770.

From the St. James's Chronicle of Aug. 20.

To LORD NORTH.

MY LORD,

MR. Luttrell's ſervices were the chief ſupport and ornament of the Duke of Grafton's adminiſtration. The honour of rewarding them was reſerved for your Lordſhip. The Duke, it ſeems, had contracted an obligation he was aſhamed to acknowledge, and unable to acquit. You, my Lord, had no ſcruples, you accepted of the ſucceſſion with all its incumbrances, and have paid Mr. Luttrell his legacy, at the hazard of ruining the eſtate.

When this accompliſhed youth declared himſelf the champion of government, the world was buſy in inquiring what honours or emoluments could be a ſufficient recompence to a young man of his rank and fortune, for ſubmitting to mark his entrance into life with the univerſal contempt and deteſtation of his country. His noble father had not been ſo precipitate. To vacate his ſeat in Parliament;—to intrude upon a county in which he had no intereſt or connection;—to poſſeſs himſelf of another man's right, and to maintain it in defiance of public ſhame as well as juſtice, beſpoke a degree of zeal, or of depravity, which all the favour of a pious Prince could hardly requite. I proteſt, my Lord, there is in this young man's conduct a ſtrain of proſtitution, which, for its ſingularity, I cannot but admire. He has diſcovered a new line in the human character; he has degraded even the name of Luttrell, and gratified his father's moſt ſanguine expectations.

The Duke of Grafton, with every poſſible diſpoſition to patroniſe this kind of merit, was contented with pronouncing Colonel Luttrell's panegyric. The gallant ſpirit, the diſintereſted zeal of the young adventurer were echoed through the Houſe of Lords. His Grace repeatedly pledged himſelf to the Houſe, as an evidence of the purity of his friend Mr. Luttrell's intentions;—that he had engaged without any proſpect of perſonal benefit, and that the idea of compenſation would mortally offend him. The noble Duke could hardly be in earneſt, but he had lately quitted his employment, and began to think it neceſſary to take ſome care of his reputation. At that very moment, the Iriſh negociation was probably begun.—Come forward, thou worthy repreſentative of Lord Bute, and tell this inſulted country, who adviſed the King to appoint Mr. Luttrell Adjutant-General to the army in Ireland. By what management was Colonel Cunninghame prevailed on to reſign his employment, and the obſequious Giſborne to accept of a penſion for the government of Kinſale *? Was it an original ſtipulation with the P——ſs of W—s, or does he owe his preferment to your Lordſhip's partiality, or to the Duke of Bedford's friendſhip? My Lord, though it may not be poſſible to trace this meaſure to its ſource, we can follow the ſtream, and warn the country of its approaching deſtruction. The Engliſh nation muſt be rouſed and put upon its guard. Mr. Luttrell has already ſhewn us how far he may be truſted, whenever an open attack is to be made upon the liberties of this country. I do not doubt that there is a deliberate plan formed,—your Lordſhip beſt knows by whom;—the corruption of the legiſlative body on this ſide—a military force on the other—and then Farewel to England! It is impoſſible that any miniſter ſhould dare to adviſe the King to place ſuch a man as Luttrell in the confidential poſt of Adjutant-General, if there were not ſome ſecret purpoſe in view, which only ſuch a man as Luttrell is fit to promote. The inſult offered to the army in general, is as groſs as the outrage intended to the people of England. What! Lieutenant-Colonel Luttrell to be Adjutant-General of an army of ſixteen thouſand men! One would think his M——'s campaigns at Blackheath and Wimbleton might have taught him better.—I cannot help wiſhing General Harvey joy of a colleague who does ſo much honour to the employment.—But, my Lord, this meaſure is too daring to paſs unnoticed, too dangerous to be received with indifference or ſubmiſſion. You ſhall not have time to new model the Iriſh army. They will not ſubmit to be garbled by Colonel Luttrell. As a miſchief to the Engliſh conſtitution (for he is not worthy the name of enemy) they utterly deteſt him. As a boy, impudently thruſt over their heads, they will receive him with indignation and contempt.—As for you, my Lord, who perhaps are no more than the blind, unhappy inſtrument of Lord Bute and her R—l H——ſs the P——ſs of W—s, be aſſured that you ſhall be called upon to anſwer for the advice, which has been given, and either diſcover your accomplices, or fall a ſacrifice to their ſecurity.

JUNIUS.

* This infamous tranſaction ought to be explained to the public.——Colonel Giſborne was Quarter-Maſter-General in Ireland. Lord Townſhend perſuades him to reſign to a Scotch officer, one Fraſer, and gives him the government of Kinſale. Colonel Cunninghame was Adjutant-General in Ireland. Lord Townſhend offers him a penſion to induce him to reſign to Luttrell. Cunninghame treats the offer with contempt. What's to be done? Poor Giſborne was to move once more.—He accepts of a penſion of 500l. a year, until a government of greater value ſhall become vacant. Colonel Cunninghame is made Governor of Kinſale, and Luttrell, at laſt, for whom the whole machinery is put in motion, becomes Adjutant-General, and in effect takes command of the army in Ireland.

To be SOLD, by private Contract,

A PLANTATION, or TRACT of LAND, containing Two Hundred and Seven Acres (more or leſs) ſituate and lying in ST. ANDREW's Pariſh, on the Way to GOOSE-CREEK, about Eight Miles from CHARLES-TOWN; which ſhort Diſtance makes it very convenient and profitable to attend the Market. The Land produces good Corn; and Fifty Acres may be planted with Rice, as proper Dams are made to keep Water on ſaid Land; every Field is alſo double ditched, which makes it ſafe, and ſpares fencing. On ſaid Plantation there is a good Dwelling-Houſe, and Out-Houſes anſwerable.

Alſo, a Stock of NEAT CATTLE, HOGS, CART and HORSES, &c. to be diſpoſed of.

My only Motive for diſpoſing of ſaid Plantation is my late bad State of Health, which prevents my giving the Attendance that is requiſite. Credit will be given for one, two, or three Years, on paying Intereſt, and giving approved Security. Any Perſon inclinable to purchaſe, may treat with

JOHN ERNEST POYAS.

CHARLES-TOWN, DECEMBER 13, 1770.

THE Subſcriber, being ſupported by Gentlemen of Fortune in this Province, who have determined to promote the BREWERY in CHARLES-TOWN, under his Management and Care, GIVES NOTICE, That he will pay, in Ready Money, FIFTEEN SHILLINGS per Buſhel for Summer or Winter BARLEY, and FIVE SHILLINGS per Pound for HOPS, both to be good in their Kind, delivered at the Brew-Houſe, at any Time from the 1ſt of September 1771, to the 1ſt of February 1772.——Any Perſon inclined to plant BARLEY, may be ſupplied with Seed, upon Condition of returning him a like Quantity, and ſelling to him the Overplus of the Produce, upon Terms above-mentioned.

(c. t. f.) EDMUND EGAN.

THE undermentioned, having removed from his Houſe in Broad-Street, oppoſite to the Lieutenant-Governor's, to the Houſe on the Weſt Side of St. Philip's Church-Street, adjoining the Baptiſt-Meeting-Houſe, where JACOB MOTTE, Eſq; deceaſed (the late Treaſurer) reſided;

HAS TO LET,

THE firſt-mentioned HOUSE, with the Kitchen, Waſh-Houſe, Store-Houſes, Stable, Chair-Houſe, and Garden thereto belonging. Any Perſon wanting to rent the ſame, may apply to JAMES PARSONS.

 Who gives this further Notice, That his NEGRO CARPENTER, named JOHN, well known in Charles-Town, particularly at the Dram-Shops, and formerly the Property of the Hon. John Stuart, Eſq; has ran away, and that a full Reward will be paid, to any Perſon that ſhall apprehend him, or gives Notice where he is harboured.

WILLIAM GIBBONS,

INTENDS to carry on the FACTORAGE-BUSINESS in all its Branches; and will eſteem himſelf much obliged to thoſe who ſhall pleaſe to favour him with the Sale of their Crops, as they may depend on his giving the greateſt Attention to their Intereſt.

He has for SALE, on BERESFORD's Wharf,

Jamaica, Weſt-India, and Northward Rum, Brandy, Geneva, Vinegar, Muſcovado and Loaf Sugar, fine and courſe Salt, Barrel'd-Beef, and a Quantity of Wool.

N. B. Letters or Orders left for him on ſaid Wharf, will be punctually complied with.

††† I will be accountable for the Conduct of the above-named William Gibbons to ſuch Perſons who ſhall employ him in the Diſpoſal of their Crops. RICHARD BERESFORD.

To be SOLD,

(Or, EXCHANGED for NEGROES)

A TRACT of TIDE-SWAMP, on the Iſland of ARGYLE, ſeven Miles above the Town Savannah, containing (as imagined) near Seven Hundred Acres: Near 250 cleared and completely banded in, with Buildings of every Kind ſuitable for a Plantation, equal at leaſt to any in this Province; a Machine, that beats ſix large Barrels of Rice per Day, may be bought with the Place, if agreed to the Purchaſer; with near TWENTY Head of MILCH CATTLE.

The Situation of this Plantation admits of receiving the Tide from two Rivers at once, ſo that there is no Doubt of watering your Field every Fortnight, if required.

The Value of this Settlement is well known to Numbers, and needs no other Recommendation, than referring thoſe who incline to buy to view it.—No Inducement would have be ſufficient for the Owner's parting with it, but its being on an Iſland will not admit of his turning his Stock to that Advantage which he can do on the Lands he has elſewhere.

WILLIAM WILLIAMSON.

N. B. If the Purchaſer finds it inconvenient to pay the Money, he may have a long Credit, paying the Intereſt annually, and giving proper Security.

Dec. 1ſt, 1770. JONAH COLLINS, JOHN BARNETT, RICHARD WITHERS, } Executors

CHARLES-TOWN, DECEMBER 13.

AT a General Meeting of the Inhabitants at Liberty-Tree this Forenoon, HENRY LAURENS, Esq; being unanimously chosen Chairman, That Gentleman presented, and read to the People, the Contents of a Paper, which had been put into his Hands by the General Committee, to the following Effect, viz.

"Intelligence having been received, that "most of the Northern Colonies have departed from their "Resolutions for Non-Importation of Goods from Great-"Britain; the General Committee desire to know from the "the People here,

"1st. If they resolve, under such Circumstances, to adhere "to their own General Resolutions of the 22*d of July* 1769?

"2dly. If not, and it should be thought no Stand made by this "Province alone, can answer the End proposed, whether a limited "Time shall be fixed for a general Importation of Goods from "Great-Britain, Tea excepted?

"3dly. If a Time is limited for a general Importation, "what shall be done with the Goods now in Store, and any other "Goods which may in the mean Time be imported contrary to the "General Resolutions?

"4thly. Whether a PROTEST should not be made, and "published, against the Northern Provinces, who by, departing "from their Agreements, have weakened the Union and Confidence "which had happily subsisted between them and this Province?"

Upon putting the first Question, a long and profound Silence ensued. At length Mr. Thomas Lind made a Motion, for "BREAKING THROUGH" the said General Resolutions, which was, for a considerable Time, totally disregarded, but at last seconded by Mr. Alex. Rantzele, without being further urged.

It was then moved and seconded, That "certain Alterations "should be made in the General Resolutions, preserving the Spirit, "and true Intent and Meaning of the said Resolutions"——the Consideration whereof was suspended, in Consequence of a Motion, that "the Preamble or Introduction to the General "Resolutions should be first read; which being read,

Another Motion was immediately made, That "the Meeting "of the People be adjourned to some Day in January next, after "the Meeting of the General Assembly:" And the Question being put, the People who were entitled to Votes divided, and it was carried, by a great Majority, in the NEGATIVE.

The Question was then put, upon the Motion "for Alterations "to be made in the General Resolutions"——And the first Resolution being read,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY, That all possible Encouragement be given to such Manufactures as this Province is capable of producing. And that the following Gentlemen, viz. CHRISTOPHER GADSDEN, HENRY LAURENS, THOMAS LYNCH, JOHN MACKENZIE, and THOMAS FERGUSON, Esqrs. be a Committee, with Power to add such other Gentlemen to their Number as they shall think proper, to consider of the most effectual Ways and Means for accomplishing this desirable End.

It was then generally moved, and RESOLVED, That the Article of TEA should not be imported into this Province by any Subscriber; nor purchased from any Person while the present Duty, to be collected in America, remains thereon; and that no Goods whatever from Great-Britain, whereon a Duty now is, or hereafter shall be imposed, by any Act of Parliament, and to be collected in the Colonies for the Purpose of raising a Revenue in America, shall be imported, or purchased, by any Subscriber to the General Resolutions.

It was likewise generally RESOLVED, to discourage and refrain the Importation and Use of divers Articles of Luxury [illegible] to give a Preference to [illegible] and in all Things to [illegible] and the further Consideration referred to an intended NEW ASSOCIATION [illegible] of America.

RESOLVED, upon a Motion, That the People highly approve of the whole Conduct of the GENERAL COMMITTEE; and that they be supported and indemnified.

RESOLVED, That the Goods lately imported contrary to the General Resolutions, and therefore put into Stores, be redelivered to the several Proprietors thereof. And that the Redelivery of such Goods begin on Monday next.

RESOLVED, That JAMES PARSONS, JOHN RUTLEDGE, PETER MANIGAULT, CHARLES PINCKNEY, and JOHN MACKENZIE, Esqrs. be a Committee to draw up a proper Protest, in the Name and on the Behalf of the People of South-Carolina against the Conduct of the Northern Colonies, whereby the People of this Province have been driven to a Necessity of making Alterations in their General Resolutions, before all the good Ends which were expected, by entering into such Resolutions, were fully obtained; and that they cause the same to be published.

The Thanks of the People were then given to Col. LAURENS for his impartial and faithful Conduct as Chairman; who then, by their Desire, dissolved the Meeting.

On Friday last His Majesty's Packet-Boat Sandwich, commanded by Capt. Richard Nottingham, sailed with the Mails for Falmouth.

The same Day arrived here from Rhode-Island, Oliver Whipple, Esq; lately appointed Collector of His Majesty's Customs, at the new Port of St. Mary's in East-Florida.
